TO THE HONORABLE DAVID LOPEZ,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Parkins & Rubio LLP (“P&R”), f/k/a Parkins Lee & Rubio LLP, general bankruptcy counsel to InfoW, LLC (f/k/a InfoWars LLC), IWHealth, LLC (f/k/a InfoWars Health, LLC) and Prison Planet TV, LLC (collectively, the “Debtors”), hereby submits its First and Final Application for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses (this “Application”), pursuant to §§ 330 and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”, rules 2014, 2016, and 6003 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and rule 2016-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules of Southern District of Texas (the “Local Rules”), seeking entry of an order granting final allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses incurred during the period of April 18, 2022 through and including May 31, 2022 (the “Application Period”) as further explained herein. In support of the Application, P&R respectfully will show the following:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).
2. Venue of the Debtor’s Chapter 11 Case in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.
3. The statutory base of the relief sought are §§ 327(a) and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2014, 2016, and 6003, and Local Rule 2016-1.

BACKGROUND

A. The Debtors

4. On April 18, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors commenced a bankruptcy case (collectively, the “Chapter 11 Cases”) by filing a petition for relief under chapter

11, subchapter v, of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 – 1532 (as amended, the “Bankruptcy Code”).

5. On May 13, 2022, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Application to Employ Parkins Lee & Rubio LLP as Bankruptcy Counsel for the Period From April 18 to May 15, 2022 (the “Retention Application”) [ECF No. 94].

6. As discussed in the Retention Application, Kyung Lee withdrew from Parkins Lee & Rubio LLP effective as of May 15, 2022, and the firm changed its name to Parkins & Rubio LLP.

7. On June 9, 2022, the Court entered the Stipulation and Agreed Order Dismissing Debtors’ Chapter 11 Cases [ECF No. 114].

8. P&R’s Retention Application remains pending. The 21-day objection period has expired.

9. This is P&R’s first and final request for allowance and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses.

RELIEF REQUESTED

10. Pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, P&R respectfully requests allowance of professional fees in the amount of $162,677.50, reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $67.50, for a total request of $162,745.00 for the Application Period.

11. P&R has made every effort to ensure that the Application is in compliance with the Local Rules and the United States Trustee Appendix A – Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation of Expenses filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330, dated January 30, 1996 (the “U.S. Trustee Guidelines”).

12. P&R has made every effort to avoid unnecessary duplication of effort by and among its attorneys and paralegals.

13. No agreement exists between P&R and any other person, firm or entity for the division or sharing of compensation in this case.

PROCEDURAL POSTURE FOLLOWING DISMISSAL

14. Notwithstanding the entry of the order dismissing the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases, the Court retains authority to approve professional fees in connection with the cases. In re Lowe, 97 B.R. 547, 548-49 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 1987) ("The Court has the inescapable duty to determine the reasonableness of attorney's fees awards . . . This duty must be performed even after dismissal of the case."); In re Fox, 140 B.R. 761, 762 (Bankr. D. S.D. 1992) (holding that "counsel may only obtain or retain compensation upon court approval of fee applications," and holding that a bankruptcy court has jurisdiction to determine attorney fees even after the case's dismissal).

15. "A Court may retain only that jurisdiction which it possesses in the first instance." In re 5900 Associates, LLC, 326 B.R. 402, 410 (E.D. Mich. 2005). The Court's jurisdiction to review attorney fees following dismissal of an underlying bankruptcy is without regard to whether such jurisdiction was expressly retained by the Court in its dismissal order. In re Quaker Distribs., Inc., 189 B.R. 63, at 68 ("[T]here is no reason to conclude that dismissal of a case could or should eliminate bankruptcy court review of a debtor's transactions with its professionals."; holding that the bankruptcy court's expressly-stated intention to review fee applications in its dismissal order simply constitutes the law of the case, not a prerequisite to jurisdiction); See Fox, 140 B.R. at 764 (holding that, even if the order dismissing the bankruptcy case did not expressly retain jurisdiction over matters regarding attorney fees, the court nevertheless had jurisdiction over such fees).

16. P&R's recourse for payment of professional fees is limited to approval by this Court. See Lowe, 97 B.R. at 409 (even after dismissal, professional fees under 11 U.S.C. § 330 are not a matter for private agreement); see also, In re Inslaw, Inc., 106 B.R. 331, 333–34 (Bankr. D. D.C. 1989) (holding that a debtor's agreement to pay a different fee is irrelevant and does not affect the bankruptcy court's authority to determine an attorney's compensation under § 330).

NATURE AND EXTENT OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY P&R

17. P&R's attorneys are experienced in all aspects of bankruptcy matters, possess a high level of expertise, and have an excellent reputation in the business and legal communities. The professional biographies of P&R's current attorneys are available on the PR website at www.parkinsrubio.com.

18. P&R sought to minimize the expenditure of time by its senior attorneys by delegating responsibilities to junior attorneys and paralegals, as appropriate.

19. P&R has maintained detailed written records of the time expended by attorneys and paraprofessionals in rendering professional services to the Debtors. These time records were generated contemporaneously with the performance of the professional services described therein and in the ordinary course of P&R's practice. The rates charged are the same rates that P&R regularly charges its hourly clients.

20. A summary of the P&R timekeepers and their billing rates in the Chapter 11 Case is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

21. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a summary of fees by professional and paraprofessional incurred during the Application Period.

22. The specific tasks undertaken by P&R, the number of hours devoted, and the amounts charged by each attorney and paralegal and the expense details are set forth in the invoices attached hereto as Exhibit C. The time records are set forth in chronological order by project category.

STANDARD FOR APPROVING COMPENSATION

23. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award P&R reasonable compensation for its actual and necessary services rendered as well as reimbursement of its actual and necessary expenses incurred in the rendering of services as general counsel to the Debtor.

Section 330 provides:

- (a)(1) After notice to the parties in interest and to the United States Trustee and a hearing, and subject to sections 326, 328, and 329, the court may award to a trustee, a consumer privacy ombudsman appointed under section 332, an examiner, an ombudsman appointed under section 333, or a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103:
 - (A) reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by the trustee, examiner, ombudsman, professional person or attorney and by any paraprofessional person employed by any such person; and
 - (B) reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1).

24. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award compensation on a final basis as follows:

A trustee, an examiner, a debtor's attorney, or any professional person employed under section 327 or 1103 of this title may apply to the court not more than once every 120 days after an order for relief in a case under this title, or more often if the court permits, for such compensation for services rendered before the date of such an application or reimbursement of expenses incurred before such date as is provided under section 330 of this title. After notice and a hearing, the court may allow and disburse to such applicant such compensation or reimbursement.

11 U.S.C. § 331.

25. This Application substantiates the total amount that P&R seeks for fees and expenditures in accordance with each element of the customary standards applied to fee applications. These standards are set forth in (i) Rule 2016 of the Bankruptcy Rules, and (ii) In re First Colonial Corp. of America, 544 F.2d 12 (5th Cir. 1977), cert denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977).

26. In First Colonial, the Fifth Circuit adopted twelve factors to apply to the determination of awards of attorneys' fees in bankruptcy cases: (i) time and labor required; (ii) the novelty and difficulty of the questions; (iii) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (iv) the preclusion of other employment by the professional due to acceptance of the case; (v) the customary fee; (vi) whether the fee is contingent or fixed; (vii) time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances; (viii) the amount involved and the results obtained; (ix) the experience, reputation and ability of the attorneys; (x) the "undesirability" of the case; (xi) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (xii) awards in similar cases. First Colonial, 544 F.2d at 1298-99. These factors were taken from Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974), a non-bankruptcy case, and are commonly referred to as the "Johnson factors." The original Johnson factors, as embraced by First Colonial, remain applicable to the determination of reasonableness of fees awarded under the Bankruptcy Code. 15 King, Collier on Bankruptcy, ¶ 330.04[3] at 330-35 to 330-41. A majority of the Johnson factors are now codified under Bankruptcy Code Section 330(a). Id. The following analysis of the First Colonial factors support the reasonableness of PR's requested fees and expenses:

- a. Time and labor required. The professional services rendered by P&R on behalf of the Debtors have required expenditure of time and effort, as set out in detail on Exhibit B and Exhibit C.
- b. Novelty and Difficulty of Legal Problems Involved. This Johnson factor examines the degree of novelty and difficulty of the issues encountered by P&R in representing the Debtors. P&R faced a number of difficult and complex legal issues in these Chapter 11 Cases including issues related to pending state court litigation and the issues raised in the motions to dismiss.

- c. The skill requisite to perform the legal services properly. A number of difficult issues and matters addressed in this case required a high degree of skill and expertise. P&R's attorneys have been used effectively and efficiently to perform the tasks assigned to them and have provided valuable and effective assistance to the Debtors. Addressing these issues required knowledge and application of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and court decisions interpreting the same.
- d. Preclusion of other employment due to the acceptance of this case. This representation required a substantial devotion of time, but it did not preclude attorneys at P&R from devoting time to other cases.
- e. Customary Fee. P&R's hourly billing rates, as set out in Exhibit A, are the rates that P&R regularly charges its hourly clients. The hourly rates charged by P&R are similar to or lower than or commensurate with the customary fees charged by professionals of similar experience, reputation, and abilities in this community, as well as those rates charged regionally and nationally. Additionally, the hourly rates charged by P&R are consistent with the amounts involved in this case, the results obtained by P&R, and the level of skill necessary to perform the work. Accordingly, the fees charged by P&R are reasonable and customary. P&R has coordinated with the Debtors' other professionals to avoid duplication of services and to minimize fees and expenses to the bankruptcy estates.
- f. Whether the fee is fixed or contingent. P&R charges customary hourly rates, as adjusted annually, for the time expended by its attorneys and paralegals in representing the Debtors. P&R's fee is not outcome dependent.
- g. Time limitations imposed by the client or the circumstances. All services rendered by P&R were necessary, proper, and beneficial to the bankruptcy cases and the bankruptcy estates. Services were provided in some cases under time pressures that required the performance of services late into the evening over weekends and holidays. Services performed by P&R throughout this case were done in a professional, skilled, and expeditious manner, requiring substantially less time than would have been required by counsel with less experience. Every action of P&R was taken to reduce the legal hours expended and matters not demanding the services of senior attorneys were assigned to junior attorneys, associates, or paralegals.
- h. The amount of time involved and the results obtained. P&R's actions in this case have allowed the Debtors to meet the challenges facing them in connection with their Chapter 11 Cases. Notably, the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases led to the dismissal of the litigation against the Debtors – the litigation that necessitated the filing of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases. The requested compensation is reasonable in view of the time expended and the results obtained in the case.

- i. The experience, reputation, and ability of the professionals. P&R's attorneys, over many years, have appeared throughout the United States providing legal representation to trustees, debtors, secured creditors, unsecured creditors, and committees. Further, partners of P&R have for many years actively participated in leadership positions in local, state and national bar associations, and have written for local and national publications and spoken at local, state, and national institutes for continuing legal education in the creditors' rights and bankruptcy areas. P&R's attorneys are experienced in all aspects of bankruptcy matters, possess a high level of expertise, and have an excellent reputation in the business and legal communities. Furthermore, P&R has particular experience in the areas of complex insolvency, workout, and corporate reorganization.
- j. The undesirability of the case. The chapter 11 case was highly contentious and likely was undesirable to other law firms. Moreover, it required a significant commitment of time from P&R's attorneys and paralegals.
- k. Nature and length of professional relationship with the client. P&R commenced its relationship with the Debtors on March 23, 2022 and provided pre-petition services to the Debtor to prepare for the bankruptcy filing. While not a particularly lengthy relationship, by providing these pre-petition services, P&R developed knowledge about the Debtors that has been useful in the representation of the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases.
- l. Awards in similar cases. The compensation requested in this case is comparable to, if not less than, the compensation allowed in other cases similar in size and complexity to this case.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, PR respectfully requests approval and allowance of a total award for the Application Period in the amount of $162,745.00, comprised of (i) compensation for professional services in the amount of $162,677.50; (ii) reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $67.50, and approval of any and all other relief to which PR may be entitled.

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
VICTORIA DIVISION

In re: INFOW, LLC, et al., Debtors.¹))))))	Case No. 22-60020 Chapter 11 (Subchapter V) Jointly Administered

ORDER APPROVING FIRST AND FINAL APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES OF PARKINS &
RUBIO, LLP, AS GENERAL COUNSEL FOR THE DEBTORS, FOR THE PERIOD
APRIL 18, 2022 THROUGH MAY 15, 2022

The Court considered the First and Final Application (the “Application”) for Allowance of Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Parkins & Rubio, LLP, as General Counsel for the Debtors, for the Period April 18, 2022 Through May 15, 2022 (the “Application Period”). The Court, having considered the Application, evidence, arguments of counsel, and objections, if any; and based on the matters reflected in the record of the hearing held on the Application; it appearing that the Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334; that this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); that notice of the Application was sufficient; and that good cause has been shown for the award of fees and expenses during the Application Period; finds that the Application should be GRANTED.

Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The Application seeking compensation of $162,745.00 in fees and reimbursable expenses incurred between April 18, 2022 through May 15, 2022 is approved on a final basis.

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases along with the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number are as follows: InfoW, LLC, f/k/a Infowars, LLC (6916), IWHealth, LLC f/k/a Infowars Health, LLC (no EIN), Prison Planet TV, LLC (0005). The address for service to the Debtors is PO Box 1819, Houston, TX 77251-1819.

2. Parkins & Rubio, LLP is authorized and directed to draw down from the retainer to pay the outstanding fees and expenses incurred during the Application Period.

3. After drawing down the retainer to pay outstanding fees and expenses approved in this Order, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay Parkins & Rubio, LLP all remaining fees and expenses incurred by Parkins & Rubio, LLP during the Application Period.

4. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
